DEATHS AEROAN. - Dr. Whately, Archbishop of Dublin, died on the 8th inst., in the 77th year of his age. This eminent theologian and writer on logic and political economy, was born in 1787. He received his education at Oriel College, Oxford, of which, in 1819, he was elected a Fellow. In 1831, without having been previously elevated to the Episopal rank, he was appointed by Earl Grey Archbishop of London. He was soon afterwards made one of the first commissioners of than twenty years devoted himself to its advancement and defence with a courage and firmness and perseverance which no opposition could weaken.

Mrs. Frances Trollope, whose work on the "Domestic Manners of the Americans" caused her to be more generally than favorably known in this country, has recently died at Florence. She was born about the year 1780. In 1829, she visited America, and resided three years in Cincinnati, occasionally visiting other parts of the United States. She returned to England in 1832, and commenced tho career of a novelist. QUARREL BETWEEN CERMANY AND DEN-MASK .- A new cause of alarm is agitating the enbinets of Europe, growing out of the menacing attitude of the German Federal Diet in reference to Danish Duchies. The New York Journal of Commerce, in explanation, says the Diet, with what is regarded as the climax of assurance, demands of Denmark a common constitution for "the whole monarchy," nner threat of a Federal execution in Holstein. nmark represensa that, only in March last, liberal concessions were made, in order to distose finally of the complaints of the German Confederation, which, on all sides, were regarded as satisfactory. She therefore declines compromise her independence to any furtent, ns explicitly declared in the royal nst delivered at Copenhagen before the Danish Parliament. At the same time, a solemn protest against the proposed execution, or military occupation of Holstein, has been addressed by the government of Sweden to the French Emperor and the Swedish Minister in London. The Minister of Foreign Affair, in his note, says: "Things have arrived nt a point at which foreign intervention in tho internal affairs of Denmark becomes really unendurable:" and remarks as follows in reference to existing guarantees from France and England, that Denmark will not stand alone

It appears to us that it can scarcely be the sh of those cabinets, particularly in the sent sinte of the negotiations relative to land, that a war should break out in the Yoland, that a war should break out in the North during the present year. Such an event, however, might happen within a few weeks, should Denmark not meet with such support from those cabinets as would protect her against the aggressive measures of Germany. We will not take upon ourselves to propose the menns by which such a contingency might be syerted. We believe he contingency might be averted. We believe, however, the we have a right to express our opinion upon this question. We have this right, first, on account of the sincere feelings of friendship which bind as to the two governments from holding alcof, since our dearest interest bors oppressed under pretexts which, at a later

Though this difficulty between the Dancs and Germans is beginning to excite much acprehension among the European cabinets, and with good reason, if the latter really intend to push matters to an extremity, and, though the German press blusters exceedingly, as though danger was immiaent, our contemporary thinks the interests at stake are hardly snffient to warrant the hazards of bloodshed. he actual source of trouble in this case probably consists in the fact that Germany covets, with yearnings almost desperate, the splendid seaport on the Znider river, and would like a pretext for taking military possesston somewhere in that neighborhood. Europe, however, would not consent to this, and, as Prussia is establishing a strong naval dopot on the

be hoped that he will let Grant alone. We may now look to see the effects of the in the conduct of the military operations of the West and Southwest. We may expect concentration wherever and whenever it is needed. The whole power of myriads of troops, scattered hitherto here and there, and working apparently without concert, in different directions, and in pursuance of no regular plan or design, will, if Gen. Grant is equal to his high place, be wielded judiciously and with a view to the accomplishment of the great object which Gen. G. mnst propose to himself, the destruction of Bragg's army, in the shortest possible time. If Gen. Grant had received his important appointment at an earlier day, much of evil would probably have been prevented, and much of good done. The blunder of sending Burnside with one army into East Tennessee, despatching Banks with Rosecrans to contend, without co-operation, against the massed power of the Southern Confederacy, would not have been committed. The South has two grand armies. We should meet her with two grander ones. Precious time has been lost, precious opportunities have past. Jonrnal. No NEGRO ENLISTMENTS IN KENTUCKY .- It will be seen from a special despatch on our first page, dated Washington, October 25, that the order relative to the enlistment of negro soldiers applies only to Missouri, Tennessce, laryland, and Delaware.

COLUMBIA RAIO .- The pleasant county Adair has been cursed by two recent visits from guerilla bands. The first was by about 52 men, on Saturday week, under the notorious Dillsbury, and the second on Monday last, when 250 to 300 repeated the visit under Hamilton, Champ Ferguson, R. H. Philpott, and Dillsbury. On both occasions, as soon as they entered the town, they commenced the indiscriminate robbery of every ne in the streets, taking watches, money, and valuables, with pistols presented in un pleasant proximity to their victims' heads. They were no respectors of persons; negroes were assailed with as much sang froid as Nat. Gaither, Esq., the son-in-law and Secretary of State of Gov. Beriab Magoffin, who lost a valuable watch. The utter rocklessnes of these scoundrels may be appreciated when we are told by citizens that Champ Ferguson, a murder-spotted fiend, was the best-behaved of the gang. They broke open the safe of Messrs. Suddarth & Alexander, set the office on fire, harned the records of the Clinton County and Circuit Courts, which had been brought there for safety, took away several negroes, all of whom, but two or three, managed to elude the vigilance of their captors and return to their homes. They seized three wagons filled with goods from this city, and drove them off, stripped the town of all the store-goods, and wantonly broke up the furniture. Governor Bramlette's extensive w-library, with his private papers and letters, was taken off and scattered all along the road for two miles out of the town. As they were departing, when they reached the municipal boundary, they halted, turned round, and, with mingled humor and triumph, gave three cheers for Governor Bramlette and no more men or money! As they passed out they robbed two stores in Comberland county, and seized a large number of horses, and in Adair county they even stripped the rings from the fingers of young ladies. They left in the direction of Overton county, across the horder, and a large number of this gang of desperadoes were citizen rogues, improvised as robbers for the occasion, and on a thieving excursion from Tennessee. We think, from all the information we have gained, that this raid on Columbia was the most aggravated, wanton, and cruel of any that has been attempted in ESEMENTS. - A cold and cheerless evening aterfored with the opening of the week's drsmatic entertainments, as far as regards attendance, though the circus, which defies tho elements, had a very good andience. We were prevented from seeing Miss Jane ombs, at Wood's, as Pauline in the Lady of Lyons, but we have frequently, on previous occasions, spoken of it as a delightful performance, and wo are assured that she was unusnally excellent last evening. To-night she plays Julia in the Hunchback, one of her best personations; Miss Kitty Blanchard dances, and the farce of the Dancing Barber finishes the bill.

At the Louisville, last evening, Miss Sallie St. Clair performed the French Spy with grace and spirit, and elicited much applause. To-night she appears as Mrs. Ormsby Delmaine in the comedy of the Serious Family, supported by the eccentric Mr. Chas. Barras as Aminadab Sleek and Mrs. Laws as Lady Sowerby Creamly-one of her finest perform. ances. The Wizard Skiff, or the Massacre of Scio, the interesting Greek logendary drama, with Miss St. Clair as the Sailor, the Gipsy, the Corsair Captain, introducing a chareristic dance, will also be introduced. We nall have a week of charming attraction at both houses, where both the lady stars are our especial favorites.

VIVE CLIQUOT!-The Madame Cliquotmay her days and crops increase-recently obtained an award of thirty thousand francs from the Tribnnal of Rheims as damages against somo champsgne manufacturers for counterfeiting ber trade mark. She sent the moncy to the Mayor of Rheims to be used towards the completion of an asylum for the aged now building in that city. Vive, veuve Cliquot; she must live on her glorious wine, for a bottle of it would put us in a condition to do any simtor or any other man, if proffered to us, and a third would convert our head into a musical box, playing all the brindisis ever composed in a superb medley.

We have received from Messrs. Myers & Co., of Fourth street, the November number of Harper's Magazine. The opening arde. "Pictures of the Japanese," by A. H. osey, and No. 5 of Lossing's "Scenes in War of 1812," are full of valuable inmation. A readable essay on "Off Hand Speaking," by Samuel Osgood, the initial chapters of a new novel "Cap and Bells," an article on the "Moral Utility of Children," by Henry Giles, a very interesting descriptive icle "In the Ranks at Stone River," and

and choice reading matter justify the claim of Harper as one of the leading popular mag-THE SIXTH KENTUCKY INFANTRY .- General

Whitaker's old regiment is now under command of his brother, Major R. T. Whitaker, and the official report of its doings in the battle of Chickamanga will be found on our first page. By Adjutant-General Finnell's Report or 1862, it appears that the regiment then had 900 men; it lost 117 at Shiloh, 117 at Stone River, and 118 at Chickamauga, into which latter battle it took but 300 rank and file, and brought 182 out. There are but few ments in the service which can show such a terrible record of unflinching bravery.

Maysville that Benjamin McClanahan and John Sparks have been captured in Rosecrans's department, and that they are both at Camp Morton, Indianapolis. John Sparks will be remembered as the young scamp who sneaked nround Maysville for more than two years after the rebellion commenced, probably acting as a spy during the whole of that time, and pointed out the property of Union men to Peter Everett's marauders, with whom he

We announce with pleasure the consummation of the happiness of our young friend Capt. Pat. O. Hawes. His life was blended, on the 21st inst., with one of the fairest and most accomplished daughters of Kentucky, Miss Amelia M. Hampton, of Catlettsburg. May a shadow never cross the path where responding hearts unite to walk love's common road.

THE Clacus.-Of course the circus is the point of attraction, as its stay is limited. The pacity of the immense pavillion was triod ast evening, on which occasion Lake made first appearance as jester, and little Alice universal admiration. THE FLORIDA SEEN .- The British brig Isa bella, Capt. Hamfield, from Para, which arrived at New York, reports: "August 1, on the passage honce to Maranham, in latitude 37,

38, longitude 57, 53, at 5 A. M., saw a barkrigged steamer under tall sail by the wind, steering S. E. by E. At 6 A. M. was under fall steam and csnvas, bearing down for the brig. At 11 A. M. was alongside, and ordered the vessel hove to. She was under English colors at the time. The first officer came on board, who informed me that the steamer was the Confederate stoamer Florida, and wished to see my vessel's papers, and then he returned on board the steamer, which had changed her colors to the Confederate flsg. Sho had left Bermuda a few days previously.'

Military "General Orders" are usually in a very hum-drum style, but the following extract from General Orders, No. 2, of Lieut .-Colonel King, of the Massachusetts 35th, who is military commandant of Lexington, Ky., is the attention of dealers. original and decidedly pointed:

VIII. Frequent complaints having been made that the milch cows of citizens have een milked, and oftentimes detained for days by persons connected with the army, if such practices are continued, and can be brough home to any one, the offender will be dealt with in a manner to make bim wish that earlier in life he had been weaned from a love of milk. This order is supposed to apply more pa cularly to the infantry.
